

Greg Bonin presents 'Another Night of Music' at Chan's

Gregory J. Bonin

WOONSOCKET - Greg Bonin, hometown singer, award-winning vocalist, and the newest member of Charlie Hall's "Ocean State Follies," is getting together with several other local performers for "Another Evening of Song."

The night of music will be held at Chan's Fine Dining, 267 Main St., Sunday, Aug. 21, and begins at 7 p.m.

Bonin will be joined by guest artists Paul Adam, Linda Conte, Connie and Mark Anderson, and Kristin DiJulio. He'll be accompanied by Sue McLain, and will present music from Broadway plays and musicals, as well as contemporary music made popular by Frank Sinatra and Michael Feinstein.

Bonin has released his second CD, "Just for You," which is featured on Cabaretdio.com, an online music service that features the music of mainstream and independent recording artists.

Tickets to the concert are $10. Doors open at 6 p.m. You can call 439-5889, or visit www.gregbonin.com, for reservations.
